Request for Observer Status for CoSP11 UNCAC

Excellency,

The Office of the Executive Director presents its compliments to the Secretariat of the CoSP11 UNCAC, as well as other relevant departments and personnel, and has the honor to convey the following information from Mr. Jaewon Choi, the Executive Director of the DMUN Foundation.

Excellency,

In reference to the open call for civil society participation to CoSP11 UNCAC for organizations without ECOSOC Consultative Status, I, on behalf of my colleagues, respectfully request that the DMUN Foundation be granted observer status to contribute substantially to CoSP11.

The DMUN Foundation is deeply aligned with the objectives of the Conference and has substantial expertise in areas related to education, cultural preservation, and sustainable development. The Foundation has consistently mobilized youth engagement and leadership, particularly in initiatives that advance global education, intercultural understanding, and capacity-building in science and innovation.

As a youth-led organization, the DMUN Foundation is uniquely positioned to bring fresh perspectives and innovative approaches to the mandate of the conference. Our initiatives include international educational forums, youth-driven research on the intersection of culture and sustainability, and workshops that promote scientific literacy and intercultural dialogue.

The Foundation has a proven track record of contributions to global governance and multilateral organizations. It has received special accreditation for major United Nations processes, including the Summit of the Future, High-Level General Assembly Meetings, and FfD4. Additionally, the Foundation holds observer status with multiple UN bodies, such as the OPCW, UNCCD, UNCBD, IPBES, and UNODC TOC, which reflects its credibility and ability to effectively engage in international policy discussions.

The Office of the Executive Director, in representation of the DMUN Foundation, avails itself of this opportunity to renew the assurances of its highest consideration to the Secretariat and other relevant departments and personnel.
